Dr. Dan Carmichael

2 April 2010

Dear Dr. Carmichael,

Everything is interconnected in the most profound and mysterious ways.
Please be reminded how important the work you do is in the grand as well as the personal scheme of this sphere, as indeed they're often the same.

I'm enclosing my true story of the Egyptian dogs, who helped me find the spirit I needed to do what I came to do, to give up my former career, embark on something meaningful, and not incidentally, acquire a dog (who told me personally that you are in his exclusive top tier of fine humans whom he tries not to bite.)

Thank you for your efforts to help him along. You inspire us all.

The above long-overdue letter still awaits the missing story, still searching, I will find it because I obviously wrote it for you!

We are so thrilled, our dog is reborn. He's just like 4 years old.
You are just the best.
